

CALL FOR ARTISTS IN RESIDENCE - EUFÒNIC / LO PATI 2019

International call to artists living in the European Union wishing to carry out a research project in residence in spring/summer 2019

GENERAL RULES FOR THE CALL

1. Objectives of the residence

The Eufònic 2019 artists-in-residence offer, called by Eufònic – Visual and Sound Arts Festival – and Lo Pati – Art Centre of the Terres de l'Ebre (the region around the lower river Ebre, south of Catalonia)- is aimed at experimental music and video, visual and sound arts projects related to the landscapes and soundscape of the Ebre Delta. This call is aimed at creative artists resident in any European Union country. The objective is to offer the artists suitable conditions of space and to promote their work as well as offering the experience of the natural surroundings of the Ebre Delta. The results of their research project will be shown within the Eufònic – Visual and Sound Arts Festival event from September 5th to 8th 2019 in Sant Carles de la Ràpita, Amposta and other towns and natural areas within Terres de l'Ebre.

2. Residence and length of stay

The artistic residence will be in the Residència d'Artistes Baladre, a building run jointly by the Amposta town council and Lo Pati Art Centre in Balada, a small hamlet within the municipality of Amposta. The building has two rooms and a courtyard offering a total floor-space of 176 m². There are two functional areas in the building: a workshop and an apartment with a bedroom and living/dining-room. The residence includes the accommodation of the artist with the option of a companion staying too. The minimum stay, between June and August, is for 5 days, up to a maximum of 15 days.

Check the location here and photos here.
Check the rules regarding the installations here.

3. Selection criteria

The criteria for selecting the winning applications are based on:

- 1) the experimental and innovating character of new lines of work regarding visual & sound arts and new media
- 2) the intrinsic relationship of the project with the landscape and soundscape of Terres de l'Ebre region in general and specifically with the Ebre Delta
- 3) the feasibility and possibilities of developing this project

4. Conditions

The residence will cover the artist's transport to Amposta (up to a maximum of 250€) and their daily expenses during the stay – 25€ per day. The artist must have his/her own means of transport for any necessary short journeys within the Ebre Delta Natural Park (10km). We recommend the use of bicycles or other two-wheeled vehicles. The artist must agree to present the project with an audiovisual performance, artistic installation, talk or other means during the Eufònic – Audio-visual and New Media Arts Festival.

5. Presentation of applications

Applications can be sent up to May 28th 2019 to info@eufonic.net. Applying artists should send one document suitably labelled with their name, as the person responsible for the proposed project. This document must include:

- Contact details of the artist
- A brief curriculum of the artist
- The residence dates they are applying for, with alternative options too
- A description of the project (maximum length – three pages, with relevant photos and links): present state, objectives, methodology, and work plan
- Areas the artist intends to use (accommodation/workshop/outdoors)

6. The jury

The jury will be composed by professionals from the world of art and representatives of Eufònic Festival and the Lo Pati Art Centre. Interested parties will be able to contact them with any doubts they may have.

7. Intellectual property

Eufònic – Visual and Sound Arts Festival and Lo Pati Art Centre reserve the right to publish the work project via their webpages or any other suitable media depending on the type and format of work produced.

8. Publication of the results and accepting the rules

The relevant parties will be informed of the result of the call via email and the results will also be made public on the webpages www.eufonic.net and www.lopati.cat on late May 2019. Participating in this call implies accepting the call's rules and the final decision, as well as all the conditions relating to the use of the residence area, and any changes to this proposal which may be necessary for reasons beyond our control. The artist explicitly agrees, if chosen, to carry out the residential activity in accordance with these conditions and within the time periods requested.
